INTERNSHIP DESCRIPTION and DESIRED SKILLS LIST

The ideal candidate will be a person interested in the graphic communications field and who has a desire to learn, create and have fun. This opportunity allows the candidate to work remotely as well as in office and learn by experiencing in person, how Thorough-bred Design Group works together with suppliers help produce an end product for a client.

Consistency of working hours will be important as many of the projects are cumulative. In addition, this list of skills and qualities is desired for the candidate.

• Promptness
• Social maturity
• Creativity
• Desire to learn
• Apple computer familiarity
• Adobe software familiarity
• Transportation
• Campaign development (Print & Social)
• Drawing skills
• Tap their head and rub their stomach at the same time
• Not afraid to fail
• Good musical taste
• Can handle criticism
