

CONTACT INFORMATION

Kaitlin Andrews
kandrews@gmrc.ga.gov
770.538.2681 (office)
470.782.1829 (cell)

ELECTRO-MECHANICAL/ REFRIGERATION ACADEMY

5 week
Training

Lanier Technical College's Ammonia Refrigeration Training uses the industry recognized training curriculum created by the Refrigeration Engineers and Technicians Association (RETA).

The Electro-Mechanical/Refrigeration Academy is set up to train high school graduates for entry level Maintenance Technician positions with an opportunity to be hired by local processors and cold storage facilities.

BUILD A CAREER

WORK WITH YOUR HANDS

FREE EDUCATION

Students obtain experience and/or certifications in:

1. Ammonia Refrigeration & Safety
2. Industrial Mechanical Systems
3. Industrial Electricity Systems
4. OSHA 10 General Industry
5. Industrial Fork Lift License
6. Six Sigma
7. Certified Assistant Refrigeration Operator (CARO)
8. First Aid/Hazmat

Industrial maintenance jobs in the poultry industry are projected to be in high demand well into the future.

The field provides good pay, with an average starting salary range of $32,000 to $38,000, stable employment and excellent benefits.

Funding assistance available through:

WorkSource Georgia Mountains (WSGM) administers the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act (WIOA) Program- this a federal grant program and NOT A LOAN. It can assist with tuition costs along with transportation and childcare fees.

Georgia Mountains

Who can apply for assistance?

- Must be a citizen, US permanent resident, or qualified alien or non-immigrant
- Have a High School Diploma
- Males must be registered with Selective Service
- OTHER ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS - Contact Kaitlin Andrews 770.538.2680